The Patrol Meeting Agenda

Adapted from The Patrol Leader Handbook, pub. # 32502A

A written agenda can help you plan a meeting and can guide you as the meeting unfolds.

The agenda you prepare will include these key items:

Opening

- This can be a call to order or a simple ceremony.
- Scribe takes roll.
- Scribe reads the log of the last meeting.
- Patrol leader announces the purpose of the current meeting.
- Assistant patrol leader reviews advancement by patrol members.

Business

- Plan for upcoming activities and make assignments.
- Address new business.
- Present the patrol leader's report on the patrol leaders' council meeting (once a month).
- Check and repair camping equipment.
- Vote on issues that need to be decided.
- Build patrol spirit (yell, song, flag, logo, etc.).

Skill activity

- Practice or learn a Scouting skill that will be needed in the future.

Game

- Play a Scouting game. It may be selected from the troop's program resources.

Closing

- Use a brief closing thought by the patrol leader or another member of the patrol to end the meeting and remind Scouts of the importance of what they are doing.
